This Month's Theme:

Hoop-De-Doo!

This is a good time to learn and play the game of basketball while you learn about sportsmanship. Have a member of the high school basketball team (preferably a Boy Scout) teach the boys the rules of basketball; then play a game in the pack with older boys and younger boys balancing each team. Play other games such as ring toss, hoop games, soap bubble contests, and hoop obstacle course. Start working on the National Summertime Pack Award or Cub Scout Outdoor Activity Award. The boys will be able to earn the Basketball belt loop and pin or another Sports belt loop and pin of their choice, including the Physical Fitness belt loop and pin. Next Month's theme: Celebrate Freedom!

Cubmaster's Corner:

You can find a lot of good lessons in a hoop – it's a circle, with no end and no beginning. Families are like that, and good friendships can be too. Also, a hoop can be used to indicate an area you want to focus on – like the circle on a target – but we need to make sure we are focusing on a good target or goal. Or the hoop can represent the open-ended potential of each boy to learn and change, to achieve and adapt. When the basketball goes in the net, it isn't held there, but can continue on, moving across time and space, bouncing back and upwards. Let's make sure we use the hoop in ways that will help each scout achieve everything he has the potential to achieve!
